

Minutes of the 2014 Ankeny Community Theatre Annual Meeting

The 2014 Annual Meeting was held on Monday Sept. 8, 2014 at the Lutheran Church of Hope in Ankeny. Forty-six members and board members attended. After the member recognition meal catered by Bandanas with desserts by Cres Vos, entertainment was provided by Jonah Hegstad, Camden Rafdal, Natalie Reidenmann, Leo Shrader, Allision Su, and Elyana Williams, members of the ACT Summer Camp Audition Workshop and Improvisation Workshop.

The meeting was called to order by President Doug Moon.

Doug reviewed the past season.

The following volunteers were recognized with the Outstanding Volunteer Service Awards: Harold Grandia, Jerry Reid, Rich Swank, and Richard Wilson. Members voted Cres Vos as the recipient of the Darel Hildreth Service Award.

Doug also acknowledged all the volunteers who helped ACT provide quality live entertainment in 2013-4 and thanked them for their countless hours of support.

Garren Bugh introduced new board members approved by membership balloting: Joel Anderson, Monte Engh, and Adam Haselhahn. Cheryl Clark will serve as president-elect. Returning board members were recognized: Garren Bugh (president), Doug Moon (past-president), John Claes, Beth Feilmeier, Michael Porche, Tamra Williams, and Angela youngers. Retiring board members recognized for their dedication and contributions to ACT included: Joyce Allen, Tom Miller, and Evelyn Vos.

Garren announced the Early Bird Membership winners as Rosie Bly and Joan Quinlin. They each received a %50 gift certificated to Ranallo's. To be eligible for these gifts, members purchased their 2014-5 membership before August 20, 2014.

The meeting was adjourned by Garren Bugh.
