Cast Biographies

Sheri Boelman (Stormy) is excited to be making her very first theatrical performance. She has participated in public speaking and poetic readings. In fact, Sheri is a published poet. She was an active member of the Variety Club of Iowa and a board member of the Woman's Variety League. She enjoys biking, swimming, bowling and ISU football. Sheri and her husband Stan enjoy spending time with their son, daughter-in-law, two granddaughters, and a great granddaughter.

Beth Feilmeier (Greta) has made several appearances on ACT's stage and excited to return after a long hiatus. Shows include: The Maginot Line, The Big Five-Oh!, Sherlock's Last Case, and Death by Chocolate. She has also appeared in Stage West's stage reading of The Patron Saint of Sea Monsters. Beth enjoys going to the gym, and spending time with her boyfriend Bronson and her dog Gizmo. Beth is employed with the State Fire Marshal.

Michael Garrison (Casey) wrapped up his assistant directing position for ACT's December show, The Registers, and jumped right back into rehearsals for this show. He has appeared in ACT's Adam's Eve, Come Blow Your Horn, and The Big Five Oh! He has also appeared in Newton Community Theatre's productions of Ham Buns and Potato Salad and Les Miserables. Michael enjoys karaoke, video games, and watching movies.

Troy Gould (Reece) is making his second ACT appearance this season. He appeared in the season opener of Deathtrap as Sydney Bruhl. Prior to that he appeared in June's Twelve Angry Jurors. He has also appeared at other theaters with roles in 27 Wagons Full of Cotton, Beyond Therapy, and Elephant Man. Troy enjoys watching and playing sports and is a drummer. He is the CFO at Community Choice Credit Union. He is super pumped to once again be a part of this wonderful ACT family.

Syerra Niday (Jenny) is excited to be making her ACT debut. In 2007, she appeared as Alice in Pompadours and Poodle Skirts. Syerra is a member of the state advocacy council for MS. She enjoys playing slow pitch softball, and indoor volleyball as well as spending time with friends and family. She recently graduated from ISU and is a nanny in Ankeny.

Michael Porche (Ken) recently finished directing ACT's The Registers and will be directing the final show of the 2015-2016 season, The Trouble With Cats. He has appeared in numerous shows at ACT with his favorites being Lend Me A Tenor (Max), and Come Blow Your Horn (Alan). Michael and his wife Tara have a son, Matthew, who is heading to Purdue after high school. Mike is a strong supporter and volunteer for Iowa Donor Network. He is self-employed as the owner of Geaux Meaux.

Valerie Stratton (Emma) is also making her second ACT appearance this season. She appeared in the season opener of Deathtrap as Myra Bruhl. Prior to that she made her ACT debut in Twelve Angry Jurors. Valerie is a physician at Mercy Westown Internal Medicine. She enjoys scrapbooking in her free time. "Being a part of ACT this past year has been such fun. ACT is full of welcoming, warm people!"

Doug Moon (Director) has directed Drinking Habits, Death by Chocolate, and The Big Five-Oh!. He has also appeared on the ACT stage numerous times. Doug is a college basketball junkie, particularly an ISU Cyclone fan. He loves to run and is currently training for Dam to Dam which will be the first time he will complete it. Doug is employed at Wells Fargo Home Mortgage with The Technology Operations Group.

Adam Haselhuhn (Assistant Director) has appeared on the ACT stage as Adam in Adam's Eve and as Hero in A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum. He is the President Elect for the ACT Board of Directors and is the chair for the Marketing Committee. Adam works at Central College in Pella as Director of Development.

Spotlight on Volunteers

Our volunteers are the heart and life of ACT. We could not survive without them. During this show, ACT would like to thank Dolores Van Oort for her contributions to ACT.

Not all our volunteers spend hours at the theater doing their volunteer work. Some do their best work away from the theater. Dolores is one of those volunteers. She is our cheerleader. Everywhere she goes, she sings the praises of ACT whether it's at the noon senior meals or at city functions. Dolores has brought numerous people to attend ACT shows for the first time - many who eventually become members and/or season ticket patrons. Dolores has provided refreshments for many ACT events as well as for show concessions over the years. She has helped for many years with packing membership packets in the fall as well as preparing numerous mailings throughout the year.

Any volunteer time given to help ACT, no matter how great or small, is truly appreciated. We are grateful for the time that Dolores has spent supporting and promoting ACT. THANK YOU!!!
